Concall takeaways

Primary Reason for Weak Mobility Segment:

- "The Auto sub-segment remained subdued due to continued program pauses and muted decision-making. "
- Last two quarters , Mobility have not grown
- "The Mobility segment will be muted with cyclical impact due to furloughs in the coming quarter, and expect a comeback in Q4FY26"

Sustainability Segment:

- Margins at 28% , 50bps up than the previous quarter
- large deal win of $100 Mn

Tech Segment:

- Tech segment margins for the quarter came in at 9.0%, remained stable compared to previous quarter.

Outlook

- Targeting double-digit revenue growth for FY26 with H2 better than H1
- Expecting a "burst" in demand from around Feb 2026
- Medium-term outlook of $2 Bn revenue.
- Maintain aspirations of mid-16% EBIT margins between Q4FY27 and Q1FY28.
- Depreciation estimated in the range of ₹ 95 crores in a quarter
- Effective Tax Rate (ETR) for Q2 was 26.5%.Expected range for tax rate between 26.5% to 27.0%
- Near-term (FY26)
 - Management has explicitly said they "expect to clock double-digit growth in FY26," backed by a stronger order book and record large-deal TCv, with H2 FY26 revenue growth expected to be better than H1.
 - Q1 and Q2 FY26 USD revenues grew in low-teens YoY (around 10–14% in constant currency), and they continue to maintain this double-digit full-year growth aspiration despite calling FY26 a "tight" year.

• Medium-term (USD 2 Bn)

- The “medium-term outlook of USD 2 Bn revenue” means management’s goal is to scale annual revenue to roughly USD 2 billion over the next few years, not in FY26 itself; they repeatedly link this to sustained double-digit growth, large-deal momentum, and scaling three verticals—Mobility, Sustainability, and Tech—towards “billion-dollar segments.
